Games Sunday

Colfax at Placerville
Loomis at Folsom
Auburn at Roseville
Wheatland at Lincoln

Six weeks along on its schedule, the Placer-Nevada League enters the "crociol" status this week-end with a series of games which may or may not do a lot of things to the standing of the clubs.

With a possibility of developments which might throw the Bartletts into a tie for the top position, we have as our guests for Sunday afternoon Editor A. G. "Scoop" Thurman, league secretary, and boss of the Colfax Lions who will crack the whip at Marcus P. Bennett, Jr., Memorial Park at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

"Scoop" and the Lions are about the fondest team the Bartletts is of, and even if the ball game turns out to be a three-ring circus, the fans will have (Turn to Page 3)

"OPEN HOUSE" AT KELLY STORE

There are "special doings" at Kelly's store today, for it is the annual "open house" and throughout the day and early evening patrons are being invited to sample many brands of regular and special merchandise.

In addition to the merchandising and service features which are given emphasis during the "open house," Mr. Kelly is calling attention to the large parking area in the rear of the store on Center street, arranged for the convenience of patrons of the store.

Recovery Cancels Pension Need

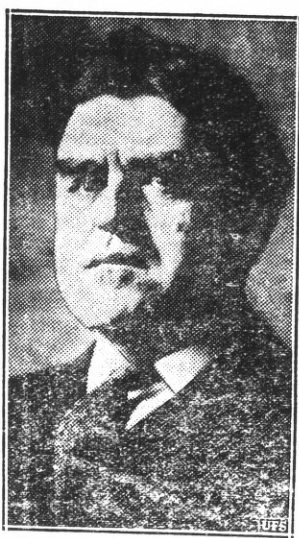

A. Neistrum of Pleasant Valley, applied for an old age pension. He really didn't thought such an application would ever be necessary, for he had an investment in income property in Beverly Hills.

But, along came the depression and "ol' debil" Bad Luck and recently Mr. Neistrum applied for old age assistance.

But that's all over now, he has notified Mrs. Elizabeth Sayers. He won't need the pension, even though his application was approved.

Times are getting better. That income property at Beverly Hills is doing better. It's going to pay itself out, with a little something left over.

Mr. Neistrum is mighty glad to shake hands with Recovery.

Doctor Sought By Police

County Officials Asked To Arrest Dr. C. C. Long

Sheriff George M. Smith has been asked by San Francisco authorities to arrest Dr. C. C. Long of Missouri Flat and San Francisco, on charges of murder.

The sheriff has been endeavoring to communicate with Dr. Long since Friday evening.

WOMAN DEAD

SAN FRANCISCO (UP)—Police today sought Dr. Claude C. Long, San Francisco physician, for questioning in connection with the death of Mrs. Genevieve Augenbright, 26, who died following an asserted illegal operation.

Mrs. Augenbright, the mother of a four-year-old child, was said to have died in an apartment which police reported was completely equipped as a surgery and apparently had been used for performing illegal operations.

Long was connected with the alleged crime, according to police, by the dead woman's husband, Harry Augenbright, an unemployed bartender, and by papers and receipts found in the apartment.

Police were called into the case when an undertaker reported he had been called to get the body of the woman and that after no arrangements were made for the services he became suspicious and notified the coroner, who performed an autopsy and concluded the woman died from the results of an illegal operation.

Vice Inquiry To Resume

Police Executives May Be Called By Grand Jury

SAN FRANCISCO (UP)—The grand jury, investigating alleged police graft in San Francisco, was scheduled to resume its sessions here Monday night and it was indicated that Police Chief William Quinn and Theodore J. Roche, President of the police commission, would be called for questioning.

The investigation was based on reports by Edwin N. Atherton, special investigator, who charged that police and others were collecting more than $1,000,000 a year in protection money from operators of houses of prostitution and gambling establishments.

Atherton named Peter McDonough, bail bond broker, as head of the alleged vice ring and based many of his charges of conversations ascertained by "tapping" the telephone wires leading to McDonough's office and listening to and transcribing both incoming and outgoing calls.

BEVERAGE TAX IN APRIL UP-SWING

Income from California's beverage tax on beer and wine continued to gain during April, the State Board of Equalization reported today.

The beverage tax collected last month amounted to $192,950.29, the report said. This represented a gain of 13.38 per cent over the same month of last year and a gain of 7.19 over the previously high figure of $179,999.68 collected during March, 1937.

Indicative of this measure, the State Board reported beverage tax collections for the first four months of the year as follows:

January, $87,016.81; February, $108,300.26; March, $179,999.68; and April, $192,950.29. The total collections for the first four months of the current year amounted to $568,267.04, or $29,066.39 more than for the same period of 1936.

Distribution of beverages during April included the following:

Beer, 7,739,990 gallons; still wine, 1,777,542 gallons; sparkling wine, 86,655 pints. As in previous months, the sales of California beer represented 91.27 per cent of the total. Locally produced wine made up 95.24 per cent of the sales for April, the report said.

NO CHANGE IN GOLD PRICE, EXPERTS DECLARE

(Reprinted from Mining and Industrial News.)

In contrast to most of the foreign inspired propaganda for a reduction in the price of gold, the Gibson Economic Service and Clinch & Co., have issued sound analyses on the subject, which should be considered by mining men. Both authorities arrive at the conclusion that gold cannot be reduced without creating havoc, and one maintains that the price should be further increased. The two reports follow:

GIBSON SERVICE ON GOLD

The flow of gold to the United States continues in large volume. The United States Treasury has to pay cash for this gold and later has to issue bonds to get back the cash. A rumor that the United States will pay but $30 per ounce for gold instead of $35 has immediate repercussions throughout the world. It brings about a drop in commodity prices and in foreign gold shares. It stops the import of gold to this country, as no domestic bank wants to pay over $34 per ounce for gold, ship it to this country in the expectation of receiving $35 and making a small profit when it may find the price has been reduced to $30.

The U. S. Treasury has the power to fix the price at which it will buy foreign gold. To change the $35 price, it must upset the gentlemen's agreement with England and France, limit the market for American exports, notably of cotton, and first negotiate a new deal with France and England. If it fixed a different price for gold than the present gold content of the dollar, it would create a difficult and trying situation.

The President of the United States has the power to change the gold content of the dollar. He can increase the gold content so that the price of gold would be slightly above $34 per ounce or he can decrease the gold content so that the price of gold would be slightly above $41 per ounce.

If he wanted to increase the gold content so that the price would be $30 per ounce, he would have to get new legislation from Congress and there is no record of any legislative body ever having enacted deflationary legislation of this kind. If he could get the consent of Congress, he would be faced with some difficult financial problems.

Of the 11½ billion of gold held in this country, nearly 9 billion is held by the federal reserve banks. It is valued in their assets at $35 per ounce. If it were to be valued at $30 per ounce it would create a deficit of about 1½ billion and the federal reserve banks would be insolvent because their capital and surplus amount to but $300,000,000. If the government were to make this loss it would take that much out of the $1,800,000,000 exchange stabilization fund which would, however, shrink to $1,550,000,000 with gold at $30 per ounce. The government's gold holdings in the general fund of the Treasury (which includes some $400,000,000 of "sterilized" gold) now totals about $900,000,000 and that would shrink to $770,000,000 with gold at $30.

From the foregoing it is clear that the deflationary threat to increase the gold content of the dollar to the point where but $30 per ounce would be paid for gold is most visionary. Even if it were accomplished, it would mark the limit and still leave a gold price 50 per cent above that of 1932 and thus make for a 50 per cent increase in commodity prices.

Mine Concern Sued On Insurance

Suit was filed Friday in Superior Court by Ralph Bancroft against the Gold Company, Ltd., and other defendants, claiming $3,000 as due upon a compensation insurance policy issued on September 1, 1936.

Gold Trail Club Maps Picnic

Members of the Gold Trail 4-H Club of Coloma, have plans for a picnic on May 29 at the Marshall Monument State Park at Coloma. The club members plan to plant some shrubs at the park as a feature of the picnic program.

TREES TO COLLEGE

DAVIS (UP)—Two seedling date trees, oldest in California and only trees of their kind bearing fruit this far north in the temperate zone, have been acquired by the University of California Agricultural College. They were planted about 1859.

CLINCH & CO. FAVORS INCREASE

Taking exception to rumors that the Treasury may reduce the price of imported gold, and asserting that the effect of such rumors has been a break in stock prices on world exchanges, Clinch & Company, of New York, in a new booklet entitled, "The Price of Gold," contend that a rise rather than a reduction in the price of gold is called for and that a reduction in the buying price for imported gold would have the following results:

1. A sharp reduction in the volume and value of our industrial production.
2. An increase in unemployment.
3. A decline in our domestic price level.
4. A decline in our exports.
5. A write-down in the credit by which the stabilization fund was created.

Summarizing current economic factors influencing world prices, Clinch & Company reach this conclusion:

The President, therefore, in order to protect labor and the farmer, is justified in asking for new legislation, to further devalue the United States dollar, on such a percentage basis that the United States price level, as figured in gold, will be kept in line with any downward adjustment in foreign price levels. Should, however, the Treasury establish an open market for bullion in New York, the United States dollar might decline to where its gold value in the open market was less than 50 per cent as at present established by law.

Such lowering of the gold value of the United States dollar would prevent the sudden withdrawal of foreign "hot money" and assure a temperate and gradual return of foreign capital without undue disturbances in our security markets. In the meantime, the more foreign gold we import, the greater the amount we shall have on hand to write up when the inevitable adjustment comes.

It must be apparent to anyone if the very rumor of a lowering in the import price of gold paid by the United States Treasury has resulted in, (1) a break in security prices in New York, London, Johannesburg and Toronto, (2) a dumping of wheat, cotton, rubber, tin and zinc in world markets, that perhaps an increase in the price of gold might have the opposite effect.

At any rate, any conclusions that gold "is passing" as a monetary base; that gold is ever to be replaced successfully by any managed or commodity currency, is easily proven to be unsound by the very fact that even a rumor that the price of imported gold may be reduced brings about a chaotic condition that is world wide.

We have it on the authority of John Winkelman that "it takes something over 64,000 lady bugs to make a gallon."

We'll stipulate, if the court please that Mr. Winkelman's figures are correct.

Soviet Base At North Pole

Russia Setting Up Permanent Weather Station

By NORMAN B. DEUEL
United Press Staff Correspondent

MOSCOW (UP)—A group of Russian scientists began building a meteorological station 12½ miles from the North Pole today after a historic flight to the top of the world.

Four of the men who made the flight will remain at the pole for a year, studying weather conditions and establishing a base that it is hoped will be an adjunct of an eventual Moscow-San Francisco airplane service.

Food and fuel for 18 months, a collapsible house and scientific equipment is to be dropped by parachute or landed on the ice floe where the airplane crew is drifting.

They are at the scene where 28 years ago, on April 6, 1909, Admiral Robert E. Peary, his American Negro aide, Matt Henson, and four Eskimos planted the American flag.

Perry and his men stayed 30 hours. The Russians intend to stay for good, for it is proposed that this North Pole weather station shall be permanent, fixed on the ice under which Peary found 9,000 feet of polar sea.

The landing was made yesterday morning by members of an expedition of 42 men who are based on Rudolf Island, in the Arctic Ocean north of the European continent.

Weekend Empire Bill Sparkles

"Waikiki Wedding" Follows "Nancy Steele Is Missing"

"Nancy Steele Is Missing," which is the Saturday feature at the Empire Theatre, promises to be the introduction of a sparkling week-end entertainment bill.

Victor McLaglen, Walter Connolly, Peter Lorre and June Lang star in the feature and the program also includes Chapter No. 7 of the serial "Roaring West."

"Waikiki Wedding," with Bing Crosby, Robin Burns, Shirley Ross and Martha Ray is the Sunday and Monday attraction and should prove a hit with film fans who like their music with a splash of romance, a dash of comedy and some especially good photography.

The plot is all about a hometown gal who wins a contest of some sort and goes to Hawaii, where a pineapple firm's publicity agent stirs up an interesting and amusing series of adventures and sings a number of tuneful melodies which you will be whistling when you leave the theatre.

Hopkins Returns To Highway Post

SACRAMENTO (UP)—Harry L. Hopkins, Taft, has resumed his position as chairman of the California State Highway Commission. He resigned several weeks ago to make an unsuccessful race for the 10th district congressional post, made vacant by the death of Henry E. Spubbs. Governor Frank F. Merriam reappointed him.

AN ordinance calling a special election for the purpose of submitting to the voters of the City of Placerville, State of California, the proposition of incurring a bonded indebtedness of said City of Placerville for the acquisition, construction, and completion of the following municipal improvements of said city, to-wit: The installation and construction of sewer lines and intercepting sewers; the acquisition of the necessary rights of way therefore; the erection and construction of a sewage treatment plant, and appurtenances thereto, and the acquisition of lands and rights of way necessary therefore; fixing the date of said election and the manner of holding the same; providing for notice to be given of said election called hereby.

The City Council of the City of Placerville, do ordain as follows:

THAT WHEREAS, the City Council of the City of Placerville, State of California, did on the 4th day of January 1937, by a vote of more than two-thirds of all of its members, duly adopt its resolution No. 240 (which said resolution was approved by the President of the City Council and ex-officio Mayor of said City) on the 4th day of January 1937, whereby it was determined that public interest and necessity demands the acquisition, construction and completion of the following municipal improvements to-wit: the installation and construction of sewer lines and intercepting sewers; the acquisition of the necessary rights of way therefore; the erection and construction of a sewage treatment plant, and appurtenances thereto, and the acquisition of lands and rights of way necessary therefore, and further determining that the cost of the same is and will be too great to be paid out of the ordinary annual income and revenue of said city.

NOW, THEREFORE, the City Council of the City of Placerville, do ordain as follows:

Section 1. A special election is hereby called and ordered to be held in the City of Placerville on Tuesday, the 1st day of June, 1937, at which election there shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the City of Placerville, State of California, the proposition to incur a bonded indebtedness of said City as follows, to-wit:

PROPOSITION

A proposition to incur a bonded indebtedness of the City of Placerville, State of California, in the sum of Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00) for the following municipal improvements of said City, to-wit: the installation and construction of sewer lines and intercepting sewers; the acquisition of the necessary rights of way therefore; the erection and construction of a sewage treatment plant, and appurtenances thereto, and the acquisition of lands and rights of way necessary therefore.

Section 2. The estimated cost of the municipal improvements referred to in Section 1 of this ordinance, under the designation "Proposition," is the sum of Eighty Thousand Dollars ($80,000.00). The amount of principal of said indebtedness proposed to be incurred for said municipal improvement is the said sum of Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00).

That it is contemplated that the difference between said estimated cost of said improvement and said amount of the principal of said indebtedness to be incurred, as above set forth, will be advanced by the United States of America, or a department or agency thereof. None of said bonds shall be sold or issued unless prior to the sale or issuance thereof the City Council of the City of Placerville shall by resolution find and determine that the United States, or some department or agency thereof, has made, or agreed to make, to said City of Placerville, a grant in an amount which, when added to the said amount of principal indebtedness to be incurred, will be sufficient to complete the improvement for which said bonds are to be issued and sold.

Section 3. Said bonds shall be of the form and character known as Serials, being general obligation bonds.

Section 4. The City Council does hereby submit to the qualified voters of said City, at said special election, the said proposition which is hereinbefore set forth and designated in the form of a ballot hereinafter prescribed for use at said election.

Section 5. The polling place of said election shall be opened at the hour of six o'clock A. M. of said day and shall be kept open continuously thereafter until the hour of 7:00 o'clock in the evening of said day of election, when said polls shall be closed, provided, however, that if at the hour of closing, there are any voters in the polling place or in the line at the door who are qualified to vote and have not been able to do so since appearing at the polls, the polls shall be open a sufficient time to enable them to vote, but no one who shall arrive at the polling place after the hour of 7:00 o'clock P. M. shall be entitled to vote, although the polls may be open when such persons arrive. No person shall be entitled to vote at said election who does not possess all of the qualifications required of electors under the general election laws of the State of California. After the closing of the polls at the hour of 7:00 o'clock in the evening of said day as herein provided, the election officers shall thereupon proceed to canvass the votes cast thereat.

Section 6. Said special election shall be held and conducted and the votes thereof canvassed and the returns thereof made and the result thereof ascertained and determined as herein provided; and in all particulars not prescribed by this ordinance, said election shall be held as provided by law for the holding of municipal elections in said City. The returns of said election shall be made out and signed by the election officers and shall be by them deposited with the City Clerk, together with the ballots cast at said election. If, upon the canvass of the ballots cast at said election (which shall be made on the first Monday after said election), it shall be found that at least two-thirds of the qualified electors voting at said election

NEW YORK (UP)—Knighthood's flower has long since gone to seed, but a feature of medieval days might well be adopted by our major league baseball teams.

I refer to the champion—that stay-at-home in cast iron pants and waistcoat who assigned himself as protector of his lady fair, and when she was threatened, rode out to joust with the enemy. I know it is a far cry from fair ladies to tobacco chewing, turkey-necked baseball players, and that they do not have very much in common. But they do have this in common—the ladies couldn't fight a lick and neither can the players.

As I have said before baseballers are the worst fighters of all athletes. The latest proof of this was offered in St. Louis three days ago, when an acre of Giants and Cardinals fought for ten minutes and inflicted but one wound. This was a very inferior black eye to Don Gutteridge, who happened to be the smallest man on the field.

The same number of mice, wearing 16-ounce gloves, and fighting for the same length of time, would have much more damage to show for their efforts. Just why baseball players are so inept with their fists is not known. Most of them are big enough and dumb enough, heaven knows, to fight. Maybe they don't know how to bundle up their fists, any more than girls do, and tuck their thumbs inside.

Maybe they wear themselves out yelling how tough they are. Maybe their tickers beat but 47 times to the minute. But whatever the cause, they could not fight their way out of a solarium with a crowbar in either hand, so I earnestly urge that each major league club hire itself an official bouncer—an honest to goodness tough gent who, when trouble breaks out, will walk out and protect the gentle tabbies of the dugout from harm.

If I were a club owner I would not delay in hiring such a champion for my team. Because there is no telling when, through some mistake, a really tough ball player will find his way into the majors. And when he does—unless there is someone on hand to protect the other players—his power will be immense. Can you imagine what the St. Louis Cards, say, would do if, when they started a fight, some player on the opposing team quietly walked out and started actually hitting them on the chin? That Dean man wouldn't get back until the 1940 season.

Perhaps it's a bid sadistic on my part, but I would like to see such a person as Tony (Nightstick) Galento, the Newark heavyweight-bartender, walk into the middle of a group of truculent baseball players and challenge as he let the first left hook fly. Given a corner to stand in, so that he could not be made the victim of the flank attack that is so popular with baseball players, and Tony, or any other half a dozen fighters I could name, would be an even money bet to lick the entire first division of both major leagues in one afternoon.

If the club owners don't adopt my suggestion of official bouncers, I think the least they could do would be to buy their players long wigs. Then the sissies could pull each other's hair when they got mad. They wouldn't appear quite so foolish doing that as they do trying, to fight with their fists.

$2500 Bonus Check Campaign

A Business Proposition—A Most Generous Offer
A Real Opportunity to Earn Real Money

Anyone who reads about the Placerville Republican's Bonus Check Campaign will understand that this plan is entirely foreign to that of a contest proposition where prizes are to be won and something to be given away. The Placerville Republican has nothing to give away and nothing for anyone to win. The Bonus

Check Plan is simply that of working and earning money. You work and you earn money whether you receive a Bonus Check or not. The average weekly pay will run from $15 to $25 per week in the event a worker does not earn a Bonus Check. No man or woman can afford not to seriously consider the money earning possibilities of this campaign. All that is required of anyone is spare time and honest effort. Applications for this work will close soon. Anyone contemplating enrolling for this work should do so without delay. Remember you are paid every Wednesday and Saturday. Start earning money right now!
